

Instructions for Iranian Citizens to Apply for L Visa

Applicants are required to submit one set of the following materials:

1. Invitation letter issued by an authorized tourism organ and applicant's traveling expense (100 USD per day required according to the itinerary) or financial certificate.

2. Invitation letter issued by Chinese travel agency, hotel reservation with complete payment, detailed travel schedule in China, round air ticket, traveling expense (100 USD per day required according to the itinerary) or financial certificate.

3. Invitation letter issued by an individual residing in China, copy of the inviter's ID card (applicable to Chinese inviter) or passport and residence permit (applicable to foreign inviter), detailed travel schedule in China, round air ticket, 2. traveling expense (100 USD per day required according to the itinerary) or financial certificate.

According to Exit and Entry Administration Law of the People's Republic of China, the inviter/inviting party is responsible for the authenticity of the content of the invitation letter.